ABOUT MU'MUN

Model United Nations is a simulation of the United Nations (UN) where students represent different countries and engage in debates and discussions on international issues in various committees. Students assume the roles of representatives from various nations and work towards resolving problems in the real world using the ideologies and viewpoints of the nation they are representing. The delegate would be required to analyze global issues like climate change or nuclear non-proliferation from the policies and viewpoints of that allotted portfolio. MUNs also have Model Youth Parliaments in the form of Lok Sabha, Rajya Sabha, and AIPPM (All India Political Parties Meet) where students represent different politicians and political parties of India and discuss national issues concerning India.

Marwadi University is organizing a MUN (Model United Nations) on 4th and 5th November 2023 at the University Campus with 12 interesting committees. It includes the International Committees of the United Nations (UN) as well as the Indian Model Youth Parliament committees.

LIST OF COMMITTEES

• UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Agenda: Discussion on the De-Nuclearization of the World emphasizing on unethical use of Nuclear Weapons

All the superpowers are piling up their nuclear capabilities and the world stands at a greater risk of a nuclear war today. Nuclear disarmament is the act of reducing or eliminating nuclear weapons. Treaties of nuclear disarmament have not been successful in reducing the nuclear arsenal and the threats of nuclear arsenal falling in the hands of non-state actors prevail. The committee will address the issue of a Nuclear-free world.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

• UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL

Agenda: An analysis of 'One China Policy' with emphasis on China-Taiwan conflict

China's transgression across borders booms, with it allegedly claiming parts of the South China Sea, Tibet, Arunachal Pradesh, and Taiwan. Territorial Dominance over its neighbors has increased in recent times and China's military operations in light of the 'One China Policy' serve as a threat in the subcontinent. The committee will address the issue of China's claim on Taiwan with regard to the One China Policy.

UN Security Council

• UNITED NATIONS ENVIRONMENT PROGRAM

Agenda: Adopting an Action Plan for Climate Change Mitigation

Climate change is one of the greatest threats to the human rights of our generation, posing a serious risk to the fundamental rights to life, health, food, and an adequate standard of living of individuals and communities across the world. This committee will address the issue of climate crises and develop a sustainable action plan to combat the same.

UNEP

• UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL

Agenda: The Russia-Ukraine Conflict with special emphasis on human rights. The Russia-Ukraine war has severe repercussions on the global economy and security. The Invasion was followed by various human rights abuses portraying the grim reality of prisoners of war and innocent civilians in the conflict-prone areas. The committee will address the Russia-Ukraine conflict from a humanitarian perspective analysing its impact on human rights.

UNHRC

• UNITED NATIONS OFFICE ON DRUG AND CRIME

Agenda: Combating Illegal Drug Trafficking and International Narco-Terrorism. Narco Terrorism has emerged as a new form of warfare in modern era with the trade in illegal drugs encompassing all continents. Drug trafficking involves cultivation, manufacture, distribution and sale of substances prohibited by law. This committee will tackle the issue of drug crimes and the nexus of terrorism and drug trafficking.

UNODC

• ALL INDIA POLITICAL PARTIES MEET

Agenda: Discussion on 'One Nation One Election'

The Government of India constituted a panel to analyze the proposal of the One Nation One election which calls for simultaneous elections of Lok Sabha and all the state legislative assemblies. Many political parties are raising concerns that such a system would be detrimental to the federal structure of India. This committee would assess whether a One Nation One election is plausible for a country like India.

AIPPM

• LOK SABHA

Agenda: Deliberations on the Manipur conflict

The state of Manipur is devastated by ethnic violence erupting between the local communities of Meitei and Kuki, disturbing the law and order situation of the state. Vandalism, Rioting, Lynching, and atrocities against women have been rampant. The committee will discuss the restoration of peace and normalcy in the North Eastern State.
